Back ground

Marieke Klosters started her professional career as a promoter in the book trade. After five years working at CPNB she became press officer at the leading Dutch Exhibition and Congress Centre, Amsterdam RAI. For nearly six years she was active in the world of international conferences, trade fairs and consumer exhibitions. It was here that she got experienced in PR for businesses of any kind. Also in this period she built up an extensive professional network and a wide range of press contacts, which she has been maintaining ever since. Following an exciting period as senior consultant, responsible for 'triple A' brands, at an international public relations agency, she established her own PR agency in 1993.
